

Core Online Course Components

In order to ensure a successful experience for online students, we strongly recommend that all of the core course components listed below are included in each online course. These components align with online course best practices, and are considered the minimum requirement for a successful online course.

Core Materials

Each Module Includes:

- Module Descriptions
- Learning Objectives
- Task Checklist

Course Includes:

- Getting Started Module with Instructor Contact Information and Steps for Beginning the Course
- Course Home Page

Course Activities & Assessments

Items Include:

- Activities with Clear Instructions
- Items that are Linked to Learning Objectives

Content & Media

Course Includes:

- Required Reading/s and Media are Present in Each Module
- At Least One Recording Per Module